McGwin²

list of Unincorp. Loyalists desirous of Sett. in Can. 27th 1784 Daniel 1 1 1⁺¹⁰ 0 0 1 Capt. militia for Frontenac.

U. E. L. Claims.

Further Evidence in Case of Daniel McGwin, heard at Montreal, Sept. 26, 1787.

John Everett, Wits.:

Knew Claimt. in Ulster Co. He was always considered as a Loyalist.

He had a snug Farm near Newboro. Remembers him in possession about 6 years before the war. Near 40 acres clear; a snug house. Vals. clear land from 2 to 13 York pr. acre. Witness was informed in 1776 by Claimt. that he had got a No.
of men who would come in. Wits. took ye names to Gover. Tryon. There were about 50. Wits. returned to order Claimt. to bring in the men. Was informed he was in Prison.

He had Cattle, horses. He carried on the Potash business & kept a store. Remembers Claimt. bringing in men to serve in Col. Fanning's Regt. He was Lieut. in that Corps--vi Vol. 17, April 4th. Produces affidt. taken before Neal McLean, Esq., Cataraqui, from David Flyn, that Claimt. purchased at New York in the year '80 goods to amount of L401.11.9 $\frac{1}{2}$ of Deponent & goods of others which were sent from New York to Sag Harbour in Long Island. Were taken by Plundering parties. Vals. the whole between 8 & L900 York.

803. Danl. Macquin, late of Ulster Co., New York. Montreal, Jun. 30/87.

Claimt. says: He is a native of Ireland, settled in America in 1765.
Settled in Ulster Co. Was there when the War broke out. Took an active part with Govrt. tho he signed the first Rebel Association in 1775. He raised men for his Majesty, for which he was afterward taken up & confined twice & sentenced to die, but made his escape, got to New York, joinrd Col. Fanning's Regt. Served as Lieut, 3 years. Had afterwards a warrant for a Co. in Col. Ludlow's Battalion, but did not get his Commission, not having raised a sufficient No. of Men. He had raised 14 men. Has no half pay at present, lives at Cataraqui.

Produces Certificates by persons in the States that Claimt. had been imprisoned & sentenced to Death on acct. of his Loyalty, & that he was possessed of considerable Property, and that a Capt. of Militia sold his effects.

Says he was possessed of 150 acres in Ulster Co. bought of Capt. Leak 5 years before the War. The first time of paymt. was not till after Commencement of the War. He was to pay L50 after expiration of 5 years. He built a house, barracks & cleared $\frac{1}{2}$ the Land. The Troubles coming on he did not pay the money, but charges for Improvmts L300 York Cury. Says his Improvmts. cost him L500. Capt. Leak has since sold the Lands.

He lost his stock, 14 Cattle, recking. 4 Oxen, 1 horse, 1 mare, utensils, furniture. Shop goods to amount of 1,100 New York Cury.

All these things were taken while Claimt. was in the Brit. Army. Everything was sold at a public vendue, except the Shop goods which were plundered.

He laid in his shop goods in 1775 to amount of 1,500. Thinks he had not sold L200.

Has sent a particular acct. home & to the Commrs. at Halifax. His stock was chiefly dry goods. He owes the money to the Merchants with whom he dealt.

He had a Bottash Works on his Lands. Lost his Kettle worth £33, two tuns of Potash worth £30 Sterling per ton.

Says the great part of his shop goods were plundered. He went after the Peace with Permission into the Country to look after his effects but was seized by the Mob, robbed & driven away.

He had 43,000 Staves of which he has given a particular acct. Hogs-head staves sold at £10 a 1000 before the War, other staves at £5 per 1,000.
